GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS EURE AND VANN TO ROANOKE-CHOWAN COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed James L. Eure of Winton and Albert W. Vann of Conway to the Roanoke-Chowan Community College Board of Trustees.

Eure is the senior vice president of the State Employees Credit Union. He is the president of the Partners for Hertford County Public Schools, a member of the Ahoskie Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the director of Roanoke-Chowan Regional Library Board. Eure received his Bachelor's degree in finance and business administration from East Carolina University.

Vann is a retired maintenance superintendent at the Georgia-Pacific Corporation. He is the chairman of the Northampton County Planning Board. Vann is an United States Air Force veteran. He graduated from Conway High School.

Board duties are to elect the president, employ personnel, purchase land necessary for the operation of the college, apply standards for admission and graduation, receive gifts and donations, provide for the administration of all educational and occupational services and to establish or enter into public or private partnerships for the support of the institution. The board has 12 members, each serving four-year terms. The governor appoints four members. The county commissioners and local board of education each appoint four members.
